A SUPPLY OF GOOD FEED

is essential if you want to get good work from your horses, good, rich milk from your cows. You can't keep a furnace going on poor fuel—no more can you keep the fire of life going right on meagre or poor quality of feed. There's no secret about the place to buy it—

"I'm Convinced You Give Every Man a Square Deal"

The above compliment was paid us by a satisfied customer; hence, don't you believe there must be others of the same opinion? In a town of less than four hundred people, with fierce competition on all sides, we have in eight years built up a Banking business of over

To Merchants.

People are willing to pay fair prices for goods well advertised. They think the goods are worth the price charged.

Winners of close races are those who hold on a little longer than they think they can. Quitters always come in at the tail end. When your competitor cuts down his advertising space increase the size of yours.

In what year was President McKinley shot? If you can't remember that, how do you expect people in your city to remember that you sell a certain line of goods which you advertised once or twice several years ago?

It never pays to sell a man what he does not want. The next time he will be liable to go to some other store to get what he does want. Favors are soon forgotten, but little impositions make lasting impressions on most men's minds. Your competitor can not harm you—unless you let him. As much energy as you spend in watching his business—just so much the less will you have for pushing your own. Your hardest competitor is in a sense of the word, your best friend. He is helping to draw the public's attention to the sort of goods you are trying to sell. If you play your own game in your own way, you will have about as merry a little bunch of work as you can manage.—Brans.

Don't lay in your winter supplies until you visit the Big Sample Sale, Monday and Tuesday, October 3 and 4. Sale will be conducted in the McKee Bank by ladies of the P. A. C. Infirmary. A full description will be published later.

Richest People Are Osage Indians.

Testimony was given before the congressional committee investigating Indians affairs in Oklahoma that each of the 2,300 Osage Indians is worth $20,000 which on a per capita basis, constitute them the richest people in the world.

As their property is held in restriction by the government, the Indians have used a great many lawyers, it was stated. One attorney testified he represented 23 claimants, who demanded that the government place them on the Osage rolls, thus giving them the right to twenty thousand dollars worth of property. The wealth of these claimants, if they are successful, would amount to four hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

Another attorney testified he had been employed to oppose the claims on the ground that if allowed they would decrease the wealth of the tribe. Attorneys fees are paid to keep the Indians off the rolls and fees were paid for putting them on.

A Rare Entertainment.

A number of girls and young married women of Lexington and the surrounding towns are arranging to give a performance for the benefit of an undenominational industrial school in the mountains of Breathitt County. There will be living pictures and a musical program at the Opera House Lexington, Sept., 24th matinee and night, popular prices. This entertainment will be unique as some fifty of the ladies of Lexington and Frankfort and the neighboring towns will take part in it, giving it the finest talent of Central Kentucky. The object should commend the performance to everybody, and the popular prices put it in reach of all. Doubtless the Opera House will be crowded at 2 and 8 p. m. the 24th. —Jessamine News.
